TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

This is to certify that Sania Ikram has successfully completed WWF-Pakistan's Digital Eco Internship Programme from January 9, 2021 to January 31, 2021 and during this time, Sania Ikram has completed 30 hours of community service. Under Digital Eco Internship Programme, the intern took part in numerous activities, learning modules, creating awareness about the challenges we face while formulating a paper on the issues and its outcomes. The internship aimed at equipping the students to not only learn about the environmental challenges faced at the global level but also to generate innovative solutions within the context of Pakistan.

WWF came into being in 1961 in Gland, Switzerland. Today it is the leading and most respected conservation organization in the world, with a global network active in over 100 countries. WWF-Pakistan was established in 1970 and is now the leading conservation organization in the country. Our mission is to stop the degradation of the planet's natural environment and to build a future in which humans live in harmony with nature.

WWF-Pakistan acknowledges the voluntary efforts and invaluable contribution of Sania Ikram for nature conservation initiatives of WWF-Pakistan. Taking into account the on-going pandemic in the world today, WWF-Pakistan appreciates the initiatives taken by our intern in these tough times - serving the community at a sensitive period and creating awareness among public in regard to WWF-Pakistan's goals.

We wish you all the best for your future endeavours.

Regards,

Nazifa Butt
Head of Corporate Partnerships and Fundraising
