*Fazal Haque Scholarship Contract
Between Scholar and Association*

I, Bibi Hajra, of legal age and resident of house number 513, street number 9, G 11/1 Islamabad Pakistan, understand that an educational scholarship has been awarded to me in support of my pursuit of an MS clinical psychology degree at international Islamic university Islamabad.

The amount of this scholarship is $250 USD in total awarded upfront at the time of signing this contract.

Accepting this scholarship means that I agree to the following terms:

- That the International Association of Islamic Psychology (IAIP) shall not provide me with regular salaries, benefits or allowances beyond the amount above during the duration of my studies.
- The amount of the scholarship above shall only be used for tuition, matriculation fees, books, travel for field work, or other costs associated with the pursuit of the degree and/or research project. All other costs associated with the course are mine to bare.
- I commit to sharing the outcome of the research with the general public and the IAIP network to contribute to the development of the field of Islamic psychology and to promote scholarship in this topic. This may include presenting my work at an IAIP conference or event or making any resultant publication available to the IAIP network.
- I understand that this scholarship does not give any publishing or proprietary rights to the IAIP for my scholarly outputs and that I still maintain full ownership of my work.

By signing this contract, I am agreeing that it is a fair and binding agreement. I understand and agree to all terms of the contract and will work to adhere to them.
