RWP

I have three years of teaching experience at a University of Punjab-affiliated institute. I specialize in Islamic Studies, Arabic, and Tafseer-e-Quran, with expertise in curriculum development, student engagement, and academic administration. I started as a Teacher Coordinator, where I played a key role in academic program design and fostering a student-centric learning environment. My academic credentials include a BBA (Hons) in Marketing, a two-month internship at Askari Bank, and an eight-year Dars-e-Nizami program, equivalent to an MA in Islamic Studies and Arabic. Additionally, I authored a research thesis on agricultural land leasing. Combining education, business, and financial expertise, I am dedicated to enhancing educational standards and contributing to institutional growth.

INTERNSHIP

6-WEEK INTERNSHIP IN ASKARI BANK (11/2020 - 01/2021)

During my 6-week internship at Askari Bank, I gained practical experience in various banking operations. This experience provided valuable insights into banking procedures, compliance regulations, and the use of banking software. This experience enhanced my professional skills, including attention to detail, problem-solving, and effective communication, while providing insight into the banking industry's workings. Overall, the internship deepened my understanding of the banking industry and its operations.
