Head of Department (Pakistan Studies)

Visiting Lecturer (International Relations and Pakistan Studies)

Summary

I am Ayesha Nawaz Malik. I have been working for about ten years. I started my teaching career as 17 grade lecturer in Army Public Schools and College Ford Road Rawalpindi in Aug, 2013. I taught board classes (9th, 10th, 11th and 12th) and O levels/IGCSE as a Pakistan Studies lecturer and have successfully been able to produce excellent results. I also bore an additional responsibility of being extra-curricular coordinator for the Girls wing of my school. I have been skilfully able to evolve my self in various teaching horizons. Learning and moving ahead with passion is my motto. Presently, I am working as a Visiting Faculty member in NUML, NDU and Bahria University in International Relations and Pakistan Studies Department.
