

Hobashia Saleem

BA. LLB. LLM

Contact

- 0336-4180180
- hobashiasaleem@gmail.com
- Bahawalpur, Punjab

About Me

I am an aspiring legal academic with a strong passion for teaching and research. My LLM thesis, completed in 2024, focused on reproductive rights, reflecting my dedication to addressing critical social and legal issues. With a solid research foundation and a keen interest in fostering intellectual growth, I aim to contribute to the academic community of your esteemed university by inspiring students and advancing knowledge in my areas of interest.

Skills

- Advocacy Skills
- Creativity
- Academic Research
- Critical Thinking
- Leadership
- Time Management

Education

- Bachelor of Arts 2015 - 2017
TheIslamiaUniversity of Bahawalpur
- LLB 2017 - 2020
TheIslamia University of Bahawalpur
- LLM 2022 - 2024
TheIslamia University of Bahawalpur
Conducted an in-depth comparative analysis titled "Reproductive Rights in Pakistan and Its Comparison with the USA" during my LLM, examining the legal frameworks, societal implications, and policy recommendations to enhance reproductive rights in Pakistan.

Experience

- Advocate 2021 - to date
District Bar Association, Bahawalpur
An Advocate at the District Bar Association, Bahawalpur, with practical experience in legal practice and a commitment to fostering justice and legal awareness. Dedicated to contributing to the legal profession with integrity and expertise.
- Lecturer 2022 - 2025
Ali Law College, Rahim Yar Khan
Served as a Visiting Lecturer, teaching core law subjects, mentoring students in legal research and case analysis, and developing their critical thinking, legal writing, and advocacy skills for professional practice.
- Jinnah / Reads Law College, Bahawalpur 2025 - to date
Visiting Lecturer delivering core law courses while guiding students in legal research and case analysis, with a focus on developing analytical thinking, legal drafting, and advocacy competencies

Research Profile

- Saleem, H. (2021). Marital rape in Pakistan: An exploratory study of public perception. Pakistan Journal of Criminal Justice, 1(1), 34–39. <https://journals.centeriir.org/index.php/pjcl/article/view/6>
- Saleem, H., Jan, J., & Areej, A. (2022). Cyber crimes trends in Pakistan: Analyzing the legal framework and enforcement challenges. Society, Law and Policy Review, 1(1), 10–22. <https://doi.org/10.62585/slpr.v1i1.21>
- Atkins, M., O'Brien, M., & Saleem, H. (2023). The shadow side of aid: When assistance veers into indirect force. Journal of International Law & Human Rights, 2(1), 49–59. <https://doi.org/10.62585/ilhr.v2i1.81>
- Aziz, M. A., Rafique, W., Saleem, H., & Jamshed, M. K. (2024). Between law and society: Exploring the persistent rape problem in Pakistan. Pakistan Journal of Criminal Justice, 4(1), 24–38. <https://doi.org/10.62585/pjcl.v4i1.43> (Y-Category)
- Lodhi, N. H., Raza, M., & Saleem, H. (2026). Algorithmic injustice: Reconceptualizing legal framework for women's rights in Pakistan's emerging AI governance landscape. The Critical Review of Social Sciences Studies, 4(1), 4813–4834. <https://doi.org/10.59075/a62y2t72> (Y-Category)
- Saleem, H., Urooj, A., & Lodhi, N. H. (2026). Reproductive rights in Pakistan: A constitutional and human rights analysis. Wah Academia Journal of International Law and Policy, 4(1), 4813–4834. <https://doi.org/10.59075/td6a7f44> (Y-Category)
- Reproductive Rights in Pakistan and its comparison with the USA. (LLM Research Thesis)