Profile

Dynamic university lecturer with over 3 years of experience teaching and researching in American Studies, American Literature, International Relations, Foreign Policy, History, and Pakistan Studies. As a visiting faculty member at Quaid-i-Azam University's School of Economics, I specialize in delivering rigorous, research-driven instruction that bridges theoretical frameworks with contemporary geopolitical analysis, including U.S. foreign policy, comparative historical narratives, and Pakistan's strategic interests—currently pursuing PhD research on energy geopolitics (Venezuela-Iran axis), committed to advancing interdisciplinary scholarship in Political Science and International Relations.
